

Name: _____

Harry Truman

Harry Truman was our thirty-third president. He became president when Franklin Roosevelt died. Truman was Roosevelt's third vice president during his four terms in office. Truman was born in Missouri in 1884. He was a farmer for twelve years. He served in World War I. He was elected to the Senate in 1934. Truman had to make some tough decisions as president. He decided to drop atomic bombs on Japan. The day after the second bomb was dropped, Japan asked for peace. World War II was over. Truman was there when the United Nations formed. This group hoped to maintain peace in the world. Truman carried on many things that Roosevelt started. He had a new plan for the country called the Fair Deal. Truman was elected to his own term in 1948. During the second term, the country entered the Korean War. He chose not to run for another term. In 1953, Truman retired to Missouri. He died in 1972.
